Classics Study Abroad Award II

Arizona in Italy

Summer 2016

To be eligible for this award, students must enroll in one of the following courses offered in Orvieto, Italy, in Summer 2016:

Classics 310 - Rome in Film: The City as Text

General Education: Tier 2 Arts

A grand tour of Rome in film, beginning with the epic themes of ancient history-the Caesars, Cleopatra, and Mark Anthony-through the modern period. Films in their thematic, stylistic, and narrative range invite students to explore both Rome's unique status in the west as well as Rome's place in the national Italian consciousness.

Classics 412/512 - Rome and its Reception

A chronological, thematic, and interdisciplinary study of Rome from Forum to Fascism, the readings in CLAS 412/512 include selections from some of the most influential writers and texts of western literature-- travelers, historians, artists, writers, reporters, scientists, critics, art historians, and politicians.

Latin 599 – Advanced Readings in Latin
